MESSAGE FROM THE MINISTER

LAND OF THE FREE

Our early settlers came to this country for freedom from the authorities in their own land. They wanted the freedom to worship however they choose and be able to govern themselves instead of one person ruling over them. In our present time it seems that everyone in America has the freedom to do what they choose as long as they are not Christians. I am reminded that this place is not our home and we are just here for a time. Heaven is the place where we are truly free as God's children. We will be free of sin, death, sickness, pain, etc. What a joy it will be when we are able to live there for all eternity because of what Jesus did for each of us.

God Bless

Adam Carver, Associate Minister
